

Honeymoon in paradise

Honeymoon, the culmination of the courtship and the wedding is an occasion which should make an indelible mark in the memory of your partner and you for years to come.

Location for the Honeymoon is the prime factor where those magical moments could be made, cherished and treasured for the rest of your lives.

You do not have to travel long distances to find such an idyllic place where you can spend your honeymoon in peace, tranquillity and comfort undisturbed.

Ranweli Holiday Village in Waikkal, just 50 Kms, from Colombo, offers an exotic hideout for all honeymooners in an Ecofriendly environment with flora & fauna, in an idyllic setting with lush greenery.

A short ferry ride across a scenic river glides you and your partner to a forested peninsula 22 Hectares in extent, surrounded by two rivers, a lagoon and the Indian ocean in which nestles 72 chalets and 12 family rooms. The complex has been constructed with site sensitive development with indigenous material in the form of a Sri Lankan village — on the principles of Ecotodge development.

All chalets are air-conditioned and solar power provides hot showers.

A balance of western comfort and indigenous aesthetics in the furnishing and interior decor offers the honeymooners ambience and land offering a soothing and pleasing environment for your honeymoon.

Go for a romantic walk, in the extensive garden with over 75 varieties of plants and shrubs with 15 flowering plants blooming all year round. You have the choice of walking along over 1 Km of undisturbed beach, or along the river and lagoons bordered by many varieties of exotic mangrove community.

Take your partner in a boat ride, and experience the breathtaking beauty of a green wonderland, and spot 70 varieties of exotic bird life. This is your chance to get closer to nature with your partner, the beginning of a wonderful learning experience, what nature can contribute to your future happiness free from stress and strain.

Come back to us for your wedding anniversary, to enjoy and recapture what we offered you in the most important day of your life, and teach your children the beauty and harmony of living with nature.

Ranweli Holiday Village indeed the Splendour of Nature.
